PACIFIC

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE,

POST STREET, Between Montgomery & Kerney

SAN FRANCISCO,

The importance of a thorough and practical business training for those who contemplate entering the mercantile profession, is too well known to require much comment. Without such knowledge, the young merchant will become involved in many embarrassments which might otherwise be avoided. The youthful aspirant will find himself surrounded by inextricable difficulties, both in seeking a situation, and in the discharge of its duties after employment is obtained. To have received instruction at a mercantile college, endorsed by the leading merchants of the city, is more effective in winning the favor and confidence of a business firm, than all the letters of introduction which friends can give. The maintains a reputation for thoroughness and systematic training, far surpassing that of any other similar institution on the Pacific coast. Most of the leading merchants of this city have employed graduates from this College, and bear testimony to the practical efficiency of the course here prescribed. The system of actual practice embraces all the varied operations of real business. A Ladies' Department has lately been added to this popular institute. This spirit of enterprise cannot fail to draw forth the well-wishes of the public.

Pacific Business College

Address for all information,

VINSONHALER & DE LAGUNA,

A CARD

We the undersigned, merchants and business men of San Francisco, California, are at the present time, employing men who have completed the prescribed course of study at the Pacific Business College, and we take pleasure in stating that we have found them well posted in accountantship and the general principles of business, showing conclusively that they have been subjected to a thorough drill in those important matters, by experienced and competant instructors.

We cheerfully recommend the College as being in our opinion, an institution of intrinsic merit, and well worthy of the confidence and support of the community.

CITY AND COUNTRY BELLS.

A peal of city bells—
Bursting through the dusty air,
And the smoke thick-rising there,
Smoke o'er myriad chimneys curling,
Like a huge black flag unfurling;
And still it swells,
That peal of city bells,
O'er a maze of houses swinging,
In the close courts echoing, ringing.
Mingling with the sea-like hum
Of vast crowds, that ever come
Down the street, beneath the spire,
Standing there, like some grand lyre,
Rolling forth its clangerous ditty
O'er the unregarding city.

Still its wells,
That peal of noonday bells,
All along the ship-full river,
With a heavy, muffled quiver,
Lingering, echoing dully back,
From bridge-arches old and black;
But those strong and mighty notes,
As the crushing music floats,
Cannot drown the shouts of men,
Toiling in life's busy den,
Nor the wagon's heavy creaking,
Nor the frequent shrilly shreaking,
Where the carriage, onward rushing,
Passes some poor victim o'er—
Cannot spite of all their gushing,
Charm to quiet that mad crushing,
That wide, endless city roar.

A peal of country bells,
In liquid softness swells,
From some ancient ivied tower,
At the purple evening hour,
Through the air of sweetest balm,
Like sky-music gliding, swinging,
Like a dee-toned seraph singing,
Like a holy murmured psalm,
Up the poplar'd vale it goes,
Down the river as it flows,
Undulating, rising, falling,
To the near hills softly calling,
To far mountains born away,
Dying like the dying day,

That peal of country bells
A tongue of silver swells,
O'er the woods, till branchy trees,
As they pulsate in the breeze,
By the sounds pierced through and through,
Seem as breathing music too;
Past the hamlet it is stealing,
And the maidens, listening there,
Show upon their faces fair,
Sobered thought, and melted feeling;
Children look into the sky
For that peal which murmurs by,
Thinking, all so soft the ringing,
Angels in the clouds are singing;
And old age that totters slow,
Faintly smiles upon his way,
An his musings backward flow,
To that sweet peal long ago,
Ringing on his marriage-day.

Such the bells, that strive to pour
Music through the city's roar:
Such the country's mellow bells,
O'er the hills their falls and swells;
Which can pleasure, balm impart,
Gentle music of the heart.

THE FORCE OF IMAGINATION.

Late one evening a couple of Irishmen stopped at a country inn and asked for lodgings. The porter escorted them to the door of their room, but just as the travelers entered it the candle was extinguished by the wind from the door as it closed behind them. The porter had already returned to the bar-room, and after vainly groping on the mantle-piece in search of matches, the travelers resolved to go to bed in the dark. In the middle of the night one of them awoke, and after shaking his comrade to arouse him, said:

"Terence, I'm as wake as a vaccinated kitten, for want of air. Get up and open the window. The room is as close as a patent coffin, and I'll die if you dont get me air."

Terrence arose, groped around the room for a few minutes, and then said:

"I've found the window, but bad luck to me if I can budge it. I can't move it either up or down."

"Then knock a couple of panes out wid yer shoe, and we'll pay for them in the morning," said the sick man.

Terrence did as directed. After two crashes were heard by the man in bed he seemed to recover, for he remarked:

"Oh, that fresh air is invigorating. I feel better already. Out wid a couple more panes, glass is chape, and the landlord won't be angry whin we're willing to pay for thim."

Terrence's stout brogan soon shattered the remaining panes, and the weak man recovered his exausted strength so soon thereafter that in ten minutes more he was enjoying his slumbers undisturbed by the snores of his companion, who had also expressed himself refreshed by the current of fresh air admitted through the broken glass.

Considerable time elapsed, and at length the travelers awoke. For thirty minutes they lay in bed conversing, wondering why they could not sleep.

"Surely it must be near mornin', for I don't feel a bit sleepy," said Terrence.

"Mornin'!" echoed the other. "By the mortial, but it appears to me that it is perpetual night in this part iv the world."

In a few minutes more they heard a knock at the door, and the travelers asked what was wanted.

"It's twelve o'clock," answered the porter, opening the door and entering the room with a candle in his hand—"Aren't you going to get up at all?"

"Only twelve o'clock!" exclaimed Terrence. "Why, I thought it must be at least five. What d'ye mean by rousing us in the middle of the night? Do the people in these parts get up at midnight?"

"No but they get up at breakfast time."

"Thin, why didn't ye wait until breakfast time before ye disturbed us?"

"Because it's hours after breakfast time now—in fact it is just the dinner hour."

"Get out, or I'll throw my brogan at ye. What a barefaced liar ye must be to say it's dinner time before it's daylight. The candle in yer hand makes a liar of ye!"

"Ho! ha! ha!" and the porter chuckled with the exuberance of delight. "No wonder ye think it isn't daylight, for there's no window in this room to let in light."

"Thin what did I break last night?" Terrence asked, looking around the room in astonishment. His eyes at last alighted on the bookcase, the glass of which presented a dilapidated appearance. "Be the powers, Jerry," he added addressing his companion, 'whin I thought I was smashin' the windy, I was only breakin' the glass in the book-case. Dut it did ye a power of good, Jerry, for ye sed ye felt the fresh air revivin' ye."

ICELAND.—In the cold North Sea, just below the Arctic circle, lies the Island called Iceland. Presenting somewhat the form of an ellipse, it occupies an area of about thirty-seven thousand square miles, affording the dull diversity of valleys without verdure, and mountains without trees. Desolation has here fixed its abode. It broods among the dells, and looks down upon the fiords. The rocks and hill-sides are sculptured with signs of an igneous origin, while the whole island is still the sport of convulsion. The ground trembles with the throes of the earthquake; the Geyser spouts scalding water; the plain belches mud; while the great Jokull, clad in robes of eternal snow—true priest of Ormuzd—brandishes aloft its volcanic torch, and threatens to become the incendiary of the sky.

The interior of the island is traversed with difficulty even during the summer. Here may be seen peaks that the Alpine club dare not climb. The scanty population dwell in thinly-settled hamlets, along the fiords and streams, leaving the greater portion of the territory to the fox, the reindeer, and the occasional Greenland bear that floats over on the berg.

Only two quadrupeds, the mouse and the fox, are indigeneous. So sterile is the soil, and so brief the summer sun, that life is supported only by a struggle. Indeed, the neighboring ocean is more hospitable than the dry land—for, of the thirty-four species of mammalia, twenty-four draw their food from the roaring main. The same is true of the birds, fifty-four of the ninety species being water fowl; Here and there may be seen patches of meadow, a few pastures, and tracts of arable land; yet so poor is the soil, that man, like the lower orders, must eke out his existence by resorting to the sea.—Round Table.

TWINS, CHANG AND ENG.

The scientific world, and especially that portion of it who have made the study of medicine and surgery their profession, cannot fail to be intensely interested in the fact which has recently come to our knowledge, of the determination of Chang and Eng, the Siamese Twins, to submit to a surgical operation for the purpose of dissevering the wonderful link that has so long bound them together. Some forty years ago these twins were introduced to the notice of the civilized world, having been brought to England from Siam in the year 1827 or 1828, by Captain Bunkner, at present living in New York, and for a series of years they were exhibited to the public at all the great centres of civilization. Having visited America, they determined to make this land their home. They bought a valuable tract of land in North Carolina, married two sisters, and settled down in the ordinary routine of a farmer's daily life. Each of them is now the father of 9 children. The reason for their determination at this late day to call in the art of surgery to produce an entire physical separation, that having reached such an advanced age (59 years) they are fearful that one may become the subject of disease, which may prove fatal to both. The interesting question arises, what are the probabilities of a successful operation being performed? It will be remembered in pursuing these inquiries that the twins are held together by quite a massive link of thoroughly normal and perfectly vitalized integument, some 10 or 12 inches in circumference, situated near the vital organs, and in close proximity to the heart and lungs; and the connection is so intimate that each seems to be thoroughly an organized portion of the other, as much so as any of the organized portion of the other, so much so as any of the ordinary members of a naturally constituted human body. Sensation, nervous impression, mental phenomena, morbid, physical and nervomental conditions, all show a most perfect physical existence. The question in regard to the result of an operation is no new one, but soon after their appearance in London and Paris it excited the minds of the foremost intellects in the surgical world. If we remember rightly, the "Twins" were exhibited before the Academy of Physicians and Surgeons in Paris that came for the purpose ascertaining their opinion in regard to the probabilities of a successful operation. The disagreement in regard thereto we believe led to the abandondment of the project. Has the science of surgery so rapidly advanced that to day successful results can be promised when there was so much doubt a score or two of years ago? We understand they contemplate visiting Paris for the purpose of having the operation performed.

MINING UNDER THE SEA.—The miner's life can hardly be a cheerful one, exposed as he is to the many dangers of explosions from fire-damp, of crumbling walls, of falls down fearful shafts, and the general unhealthfulness of work-where the purifying sunbeams are ever excluded. But mining under the sea must have its peculiar trials and terrors.

There is a vast copper mine in England, where shafts extend many hundred yards under the bottom of the sea. The moaning of the waves as they dash against the rocks is forever sounding in those gloomy aisles. When the storms come, the sound of the waters becomes so terrific, that even the boldest miners cannot stay below, but leave their work and come out upon the firm earth. Overhead, are masses of bright, pure copper, streaming through the gallery in all directions, traveresed by a network of thin red veins of iron, and over the salt water constantly drips, down from tiny crevices in the rock. Immense wealth of metal is contained in these roofs, but no miner dare give it another stroke with his pick-axe. Already there has been noe day's work too much upon it, as a huge wedge of wood driven into the rock bears witness. The wedge is all that keeps back the sea from bursting in upon them.

The rooi is probably not over three feet in thickness, and in many places may be less. Yet here are three tiers of galleries, where men work day by day, not knowing but at some fatal hour the flood may be upon them, rendering all escape as hopeless as it was in the days of Noah.

The awe-stricken visitor hurries away from the scene, with a heart appalled in view of its hourly dangers. Who could win money at such a risk, with that sullen roar of the ocean forever sounding its warning in his ears.—New York Times.

ONE THING CERTAIN.

Death is a theme of universal interest! The lightest heart, the least thoughtful mind, has no disbelief of death. The distance of the dark cloud in which he comes, sailing through futurity, may be miss calculated; but the world unhesitatingly owns that he is coming and at last will be here. In almost every particular of existence, the fortunes of men differ; but to die is common to all. The stream of life runs in a thousand various channels; but run where it will—brightly or darkly, smoothly or languidly—it is stopped by death. The trees drop their leaves at the approach of winter's frost; man falls at the presence of death. Every successive generation he claims for his own, and his claim is never denied. To die is the condition on which we hold life; rebellion sickens with hopelessness at the thought of resisting death; the very hope of the most desperate is not that death may be escaped, but that he is eternal; and all that the young, the careless, and the disipated attempt is to think of him as seldom as they can. No man, therefore, will deny, that whatever can be said of death is applicable to himself. The bell that he hears tolled may never toll for him; there may be no friend or children left to lament him, he may not have to lie through long and anxious days, looking for the expected terror; but he must die; he knows that in whatever quarter of the world he abides—whatever be his circumstances—however unlike the prey of death he looks—however strong his present hold of life—that it is his doom to die.

THE Alta says according to Washington correspondents, the Presidential nominations have already sown dissensions in the not specially harmonious Cabinet of Mr. Johnson. Seward and Schofield are for Grant; Welles is for Seymour; McCulloch is non-committal, as usual but don't like the Seymour financial plank, and Attorney General Evarts, being and old Republican, just confirmed by a Republican Senate, will, of course go for Grant and Colfax. When the disruption between Johnson and Congress began, the White House party got up a serenade which brought out the members of the Cabinet and forced them to show their hands; perhaps the same trick will have to be resorted to again, if Mr. Johnson wants to help the Democratic party. At any rate, it is certain that there is the same state of mutual disagreement in the Johnsonian Cabinet that there was in Lincoln's when that irrepressible mischief-maker, Montgomery Blair, was in it. Mr. Lincoln one day spoke of the Cabinet, as then constituted, as the "Happy Family;" a gentleman present asked: "Is it a live Happy Family, Mr. President, or a Happy Family in wax?" "Whacks," said Lincoln, with a funny twinkle in his eye. At that time Blair, Seward and Stanton were dealing some sound "whacks" at each other, which made a good deal of noise, at least.

THE Dramatic Chronicle, one of the spiciest newspapers on the Pacific Coast, gives the following "Letters from the People," after the style of the San Francisco Call:

Misther Eddytur:—As a mimber ov the Dimmycratic pa-r-ty, who knows nothing but dimocracy, I desoire to inter me protist against the racint action ov the Police Commissioners. Ov the sivin policemin racintly appinted by thim, only foive were Oirishmin! fwhile one German and one Yankee were given positions, to the exclusion ov two Orishmin who have always labored for the succiss ov the Dimmycratic pa-r-ty. I wud loike to know how long Dimmycrats are going to sthand this sort ov thing? It is ividint that McCoppin and Provines are playing into the hands ov the R-r-r-adicals. Let thim beware! A LIFE LONG DIMMYCRAT.

THE Linnæus Missourian is responsible for the following:

"The latest fashion for the ladies is a new style of walking, appropriately described as a 'kink in the back.' It gives them somewhat the appearance of a dromedary trying to walk a slack rope. When we read an extract from the fashion report, stating that the mouth would be worn slightly open this season, we looked upon it as a joke; but why not, since the back is worn slightly bent?"

A MARCH.

There is a story going the rounds of the boudoirs of Paris about a handsome man, of about fifty years of age, but well preserved, and with only one infirmity—he has a glass eye. It was unfortunate; but things are so well managed nowadays, that no one noticed it. One evening, having no other engagement, he accepted an invitation to a reception at Madame Saint Ildehouse de Pieroveeville's. He went to the ball, passed a charming evening, and devoted himself exclusively to a beautiful young blonde who attracted the attention of all the company. Shall it be confessed? He fell in love with the young lady at first sight, that he made her an offer on the spot. After a few instances of reflection and some preliminaries relating to the the contract the marriage was arranged, and celebrated in due time. When he entered the nuptial chamber he extinguished the light. A glass of water was on the table by the bedside; he dropped his eye into it. The next morning as soon as it was light, our handsome bridegroom reached forth his arm, seized the cherished orb, and replaced it in its orbit. As soon as he was dressed he went to see a friend in town. On seeing his friend give a cry of surprise.

"Perhapse you find me changed," said our friend. "It is my happiness. Think of it my friend. "I am married, to the most delicious blonde—such hair! such eyes!"

"Blue eyes?"

"Of course as she is a blonde. If you could only see her eyes!"

"I see one of them now, and if your memory fails you, you have only to look in the glass to see her eye before you!"

The bridegroom trembled. He rushed to the mirror.

O horrors!—his right eye was black and full of fire, but his left eye was blue, languishing and tender.

In the glass of water were two eyes, but they did not belong to the same person.

The newly married couple separated, without vilifying each other, but not without changing eyes.

☞ A lad stood on a ladder tall, a-painting of a sign—a new, short sign; and Lang Syne Auld he whistled; the sun did shine And tune or sun moved snow on roof, unused to melting mood: it slid, and peeped o'er roof above, eaves-dropping where he stood. He, gazing down on a miss beneath, dreaming not mischance was near, but held his bucket in his good right hand, and brushed a silent T. R. He was a painter's 'prentice boy, I need not paint his name; he came from high descent indeed, but now 'tis all the same. But, ah! the snow, too soon it fell, as if with fell design; he kicked the bucket—down he dropped—he died and made no sign!

I deerly luv the singing burd,
And little buzzin' B,
But deerer far than all the world,
Is thy sweet voice to me.

O! very deep is daddy's well,
And deeper is the sea—
But deepest in my busum is
The love I bare for thee.

Then smile on me dear Angyline,
To make my heart feel light,
Chain the big dog and I will cum,
A cortin Sunday night.

☞ There is rather a good saying attributed to Marshal Narvaez, who died the other day. The night before his death he understood his danger, and sent for his confessor. "My son," said the Rev. Father, "at such a moment as this it is more than imperative to forgo anger and forgive our enemies." "Enemies, my father," said the dying man, "I have none." "All men have them, my son," the priest insisted; "even the best of men." "I assure you, my father," was the reply, "I have not had any for a long time past. "I have shot them all."

☞ A man who was in the habit of making pretensions to a personal knowledge of the world, was asked by a sceptical friend:

"Have you been much at sea?"

"Why, no, not exactly; but my brother married a Commodore's daughter."

"Were you ever abroad?"

"No, not exactly, but my brother's wife's maiden name was French."

☞ In proof of the elevating influence, of the the drama, a New York paper says: "There are now over three hundred woman at the Broadway theatres who can kick a man's hat off though he be six feet high. Any more cant against the elevating tendency of art.

☞ A gentleman was praising the beautiful hair of a lady, when one of those precious little misses, who always have a word to say, remarked: "I guess my hair would look as well if I took as much care of it. Mamma never sleeps in her hair."

☞ Don't flatter yourself young man, that a cardamon seed, a kernel of burnt coffee, a bit of flag root or lemonpeel, a clove, or any thing of that shallow sort, will disguise the nipper that has gone down your throat. The lady at your side detects the trick, and despises the cause of it.

☞ An effort is being made to organize a company in Santa Clara county, to engage in the business of gathering mustard seed in Southern California. The News says, a man made $30,000 at the business last year.

☞ Some body has discovered that the Republican ticket is purely military, being made up of Gen. Grant and Col. Fax. Its strongest supporter, as a consequence, says a radical paper, is General Satisfaction.

☞ Somebody is agitating the scheme of building an air line railroad from New York to San Francisco, over which the trip will be made in 48 hours. Ground has not been broken on the road.

☞ An Edinburgh paper lately contained the following advertisement: "Wanted, a handsome young lady, about seventeen years old, to go to the ball on Thursday evening of next week. No girl who eats onions need answer."

☞ The unmarried man is like a horse running in a little pasture, trampling down the turf, snorting and doing good to nobody. A married man is like the same horse hitched to a heavily loaded wagon.

☞ The Richmond Whig, alluding to General Grant's wish for peace, says that "in war he knows how to deal with those who stand in the way of what he is aiming at."

☞ The Oregonian says "Seymour was known during the rebellion as one of the numerous class who were in favor of the war but opposed its prosecution."

☞ There are more Germans than natives in several of the principal cities of the United States, and the largest proportion of the West is made up of Germans. It is good stock.

☞ Women are allowed to vote in several localities in the East. In Schenectady, New York, they vote upon municipal questions.

☞ Do you like codfish-balls, Mr. Wiggins?" Mr. Wiggins, hesitatingly: "I really don't know, Miss; I don't recollect attending one."

☞ "We're in a pickle now," said a man in a crowd. "A regular jam," said another. "Heaven preserve us!" moaned an old lady near.

☞ A French writer on gastronomical subjects has defined indigestion to be the "ingratitude of the stomach."

☞ The young lady who was quite thunderstruck on hearing of her friend's engagement, has been provided with a lightning rod.

☞ Trains are now running for 700 miles over the Union Pacific Railroad 680 miles have been accepted. There are 20,000 men at work.

☞ Mind, it is folly to tell women truth; they would rather live on lies, so they be sweet.

[COMMUNICATED.]

TO THE CHILDREN AND YOUTH OF DUTCH FLAT.

DEAR YOUNG FRIENDS:—In this life we need dicipline, which rightly met, and wisely used, becomes not only the framer of character, but its refiner. Without dicipline none have ever arrived at distinction, in greatness or goodness. Without it none can ever enter the land of peace and purity—the joys of heaven above the light of God's glory. The crown of rejoicing; the waving palm of victory, and the exulting shout of triumphant praise that fills the Courts of God on high, are but the frends of dicipline. "Come ye blessed of My Father, enter into the kingdom prepared for you," "Not only for you, bur for all those that love His appearaing." The heavenly hosts, have passed through the refining fire of dicipline. "The angles that kept their first estate," of probation, gained the higher walks of divine life, by a holy obedience to the will of their Creator, perfected their character, are raised to an eternal state of reward and blessedness in heaven. And Enoch, of the patriarchs "who walked with God for 300 years was not, for God took him," 300 years of dicipline, was rewarded with a glorious transformation into heaven without death. With all the saints "fall down before the Throne and cry, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God, Almighty which was and is, and is to come," "Giving glory and honor, and thanks, to Him that sitteth on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, "And casting their Crowns before the Throne;" Saying "Thou art worthy Lord, to receive glory and honor and power; for thou hast created all things and for thy pleasure they are, and were created."

"And they sang a new song," that which angels never sang, a new song in Heaven "Saying with a loud voice, worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, and wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and blessing. For thou wast slain and hast redeemed us to God, by Thy blood out of every kindred and tongue, and people and nation, and washed our robes white in the blood of the Lamb," "And hast made us kings and priests unto God." None are fitted to live here without purpose. Even in this life of probation, to pass worthily and successfully through its toils, to meet its responsibilities, to overcome its temptations, and finally enjoy the rich rewards of victory. It is the brave and truthful soldier that is promoted and finally crowned. What was it that made Washington, Grant, Sherman and Sheridan, successful and victorious? Discipline. Meeting their duties and trials, with brave and honest hearts, and a determination to be true to themselves and their country. The names of Luther and Howard, will live in the hearts and memories of the church, and nations of Europe, as long as the world shall stand; the first, for his unswerving integrity, for truth and faith in God; the latter for his unparalleled patience and benevolence: a life spent in alleviating the woes and sorrows of Europe's prisons. Both were born of poor parentage, in poverty they struggled, disciplined to the school of adversity, yet no two persons ever did as much for the liberation and elevation of Europe as they. They were true men. The world loves to see such men. "A good man is the noblest creation of God." Doubtless, life, to some of you will prove a school of discipline, full of burdens and toil; you may fall under its disappointments, be discouraged, and almost give up in despair. Temptations will come upon you "like a flood;" evil with its hydra-head, will attempt to frighten, or silken tongue attempt to charm, and angel garb to allure from the paths of peace and purity. Slander with its foul mouth and sharp teeth may spew and gnash her terror against you; but ever remember that character is worth contending for, it is your all; lose that and you loose your greatest treasure. Hear what God says, "the name of the wicked shall rot, but the memory of the just is blessed;" "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches;" "A good name is better than precious ointment." Early plant the seed of truth and purity in the garden of your heart. Cultivate each little plant of grace and love that God has caused to germinate and grow therein; root out every weed of sin and evil desire that may spring up therein and endeavor to grow. Don't let a wicked thought nestle in your bosom; it will bring others with it if you do; it will become a nest of vipers to sting you. "Like the little foxes that spoil the vines" those little sins and wrong tempers, bad words and evil ways, wicked playmates and associates; those places of resort where idle boys and idle men, spend the precious time god has given them for a better purpose. "If sinners entice thee consent thou not." They will entice thee, temptations, every variety of sin is enticing you; every glass of liquor you see drank invites you; every card-table, every card you behold; every vile jest lascivious and wanton story; these are the little foxes that spoil the tender vines—you, children.

C. A——.

IT'S DARK.—The following beautiful sentiments are from Meister Karl's Sketch Book, entitled the "Night in Heaven." It is full of touching tenderness:

"It is dark when the honest and honorable man sees the result of years swept cruelly away by the knavish, heartless adversary. It is dark when he feels the clouds of sorrow gather round and knows that the hopes and happiness in others are fading with his own. But in that hour the memory of past integrity will be a true consolation, and assure him even here on earth of gleams of light in Heaven. It is dark when the dear voice of that sweet child, once fondly loved, is no more heard around in murmurs. Dark when the pattering feet no more resound without the threshold, or ascend step by step up stairs. Dark when some well-known air recalls the strain once oft attuned by childish voice now hushed in death! Darkness; but only the gloom which now heralds the day-spring of immortality, and the infinite light of Heaven."

ENOCH ARDEN OUTDONE.—Enoch Arden has been outdone in Davenport, Iowa. The facts are that Nathan Swin, a nice young mechanic, had a pretty wife and four children. Swin took a boarder a freight conductor on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad, who stole the pretty woman,s affections and behaved very naughtily. Swin begged of his wife, atvarious times, to change her conduct, and he would forgive her. She wouldn't reform, and so Swin divided his goods with her and helped her to ship them West, in company with her seducer. The woman got into the caboose, and bade her husband good-bye as coolly as though he were a mere acquaintance. Swin then went up to the rascal and said: "You've got the woman. If you ever desert her or misuse her, and I hear of it, I'll kill you. You've done enough to injure me—don't repeat it with her," and off they started for the West.

THE HERALD'S OPINION.—The New York Herald says: "We can give no countenance to this retrograde movement of the Democratic party. The successful movements of the age are progressive, and we must go with them. All the world is going forward except our Democratic party. It is behind Austria, Russia, Turkey and China, for they all recognize the necessity of shaping their policy to the pressure of living events. Seymour is behind the age, and Blair as a soldier pinned to his ticket, makes a mockery of the combination. Grant and Colfax against such a ticket will sweep the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, because the blockheads of the Democratic party will have it that we are still under the regime of Pierce and Buchanan."

THE SNAIL-SELLERS OF PARIS.—Of all the sights in Paris, none are more curious than the snail-seller. He trundles a shallow hand-cart tarough the streets, covered with huge snails crawling all over the side of the cart, with horns extended and house on back. A dozen can be purchased for the small sum of two sous; you can select them yourself, and carry them away in a paper bag. Some people eat them raw, like oysters; others roast them with savory herbs. The best snails come from Burgundy in the autumn, and are fattened on the vine leaves. Those now selling are gathered in every ditch outside the city, the several cemeteries yeilding the largest supplies.

"COME here, sissy," said a young gentleman to a little girl to whose sister he was paying his sister he was paying his addresses; "you are the sweetest thing on earth."

"No, I ain't," she replied. "Sister says you are the sweetest."

The gentleman popped the question the next day.

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

SATURDAY, AUGUST, 8. 1868.

A. A. SARGENT.

Of the numerous candidates before the Union District Convention, for the nomination of Congressman, from the Third District, no one could have been selected that would have given better satisfaction, and have a more powerful tendency to unite, and infuse the spirit of enthusiasm in the ranks of the party, than A. A. Sargent, of Nevada County. He has represented this State in the Congress of the nation, and when there, was ever ready to work for the interests of his constituents. Honest, incorruptible, clear-headed, zealous in the discharge of his duties, true to his dictates of right, unswerving in his political course, ever upholding and battling for the great principles of the Union Party; peace, human liberty, and progress, he can be endorsed by the party, without fear or hesitancy, and will be triumphantly elected in November next.

THE Union County Convention at Auburn, last Monday passed off quite harmoniously. Eloquent speeches were made by Hon. J. E. Hale, C. A. Tuttle, and Rev J. E. Benton. The following named persons were elected delegates to the State Convention: M. Waldron, J. J. Fitch, J. L. Sanborn, W. Van Vactor, C. A. Tweed, M. T. Shafter, R. D. Burt, D. W. Madden, M. H. Calderwood, L. R. Chamberlain, L J. Smith, J. M. Miner.

WE received, on Thursday last, a visit from Mr. J. M. Foard, one of the proprietors of the Golden City, the best, by far, literary newspaper published on the Pacific Coast. Mr. Foard is canvassing the mountain towns for subscribers to the valuable journal mentioned, and reports large acquisitions to the circulation. So courteous a gentleman as Mr. F., cannot fail to enhance the patronage of the journal.

THE following named gentlemen have been nominated State Electors by the Union State Convention: J. B. Felton, General La Grange, General Redington, Dr. Hoffman, of San Diego, and C. Westmoreland; and Walter Van Dyke, G. W. Tyler, Senator Tweed, of Placer, Lewis Sloss, of San Francisco, and James H. McNabb of Sonoma, as Alternates.

IN Japan the laws forbid the cutting down of a tree without a permit from the commissioner appointed by the government, and it is the duty of that official to see that another tree of the same variety is planted in the place of the one cut down, hence in Japan the timber can never fail. It would be well for our country to learn a lesson from the Japanese in this respect.

DURING the dry weather too close a watch cannot be kept upon the stove pipes. By the investment of one or two dollars, in time, thousands of dollars might have been saved, which have been swept away by the devouring element. As a "stitch in time saves nine," take a look at your stove pipes and see that they are all right.

JAMES M. BROWN, lecturer for the Good Templars of this State, will lecture at Gold Run on the 10th, inst., and at this place on the 11th and 12th. As no provision is made for his support, financially, by the Grand Lodge, it is expected that the brethren of the order will attend to it, and see that he is remunerated. It is to be hoped that he will meet with a cordial reception.

ON last Saturday the house of Mr. Mahatha, of Green Valley, was entered by some parties and robbed of $95. Two men named Kruse and Bryson, were arrested upon suspicion, and were examined before Judge Brown, and bound over, in the sum of $1000 each. Bryson immediately gave bail for the amount, and the other man will be sent below to await his trial.

BEAT IT IF YOU CAN.—A limb about three-eighths of an inch in thickness, cut from an apple tree in the garden of Mr. Thomas Manly, of this place, left at this office, contained in a space of about nine inches, forty-one well developed apples, averaging about an ounce and three-fourths each in weight. We do not think that Dutch Flat can be beaten on the apple question.

SUPPORT the right and oppose the wrong. A man cannot have two opinions at the same time, He cannot stand upon a platform favoring the payment of the Public debt in greenbacks, and also be in favor of paying it in gold. In fact a man can't be white and black at the same time.

THE necessity of action is too apparant to all Union men, for them not to observe it. It will require all the votes of the party to raise it from the gutter into which it fell last Fall, because of its inaction. We must work if we would win; and we must win if we work properly.

THE Mechanics' Fair commences to-day in San Francisco. So great has been the demand for spaces the Committee were compelled to exclude all foreign productions, and hence the exhibition will be purely a home affair.

THE Royal Commission says, a dispatch to the associated press, reported in favor of the disestablishment of the Church of England, in Ireland, with the exception of eighty churches, which are to be retained on reduced incomes.

THE thermometer stood at one hundred and eleven degrees in the shade, at noon last Sunday, in front of the Express office in this place. If that isn't about hot enough to climate a fellow we would like to know the requisite degree of heat.

WE call the attention of millmen to the advertisement of the American Saw Company, in another column. Those who are in want of any thing in this line will undoubtedly find it to their advantage to give them a call.

LECTURE.—Dr. C. S. Haswell of Sacramento, will lectere before the Dashaway Association of this place some evening during the coming week, due notice of which will be given.

WE are requested to state that there will be a special meeting of the Good Templars, at their Hall this evening, a full attendance is requested.

THE Dashaways will meet next Monday evening, at the theatre. The meetings are public and any who may wish to attend are cordially welcome.

IT is estimated that wheat will be shipped from Stockton this year, to the value of eleven million dollars.

THE Democrats have carried Kentucky by the about 70,000 majority.

THE Alta which has the reputation of always having its local columns full, gets the following rub from Figaro:

The local columns of the Alta were particularly brilliant yesterday, owing to the fact that Fitz Smythe had been shown a potato weighing three and a-half pounds. It takes only about one potato, two turnips, a dead dog, an imaginary murder, thirteen suicides, a fire, and seven falsehoods daily, to make the local columns of the Alta blaze and sparkle with wit and humor.

WHY is the Blair Family like the smallpox? Because every administration must have it once.—Cincinnati Gazette.

More particularly be cause whoever catches it is to be pitted.—Carson Appeal.

THERE was a social dance at Pioneer Hall on last Thursday evening, which was well attended and we learn that those who were present enjoyed themselves hugely.

ON TO VICTORY.

We face the foe, the ranks are full, our cannon are shotted and trailed, our repeating rifles are charged, our bayonets are fixed and gleaming, we stand shoulder to shoulder, our elbows touch; with clenched teeth, protruding chin, hands of iron and hearts of fire, we enter the conflict to crush the traitor hosts. We have named our leaders and each is in his place. Ahead of these invincible legions rides a chief who knows no such word as defeat. A hero who on a hundred red fields has slain, routed or captured the rebel hoards. No internal feuds distract or impede us; no soreheads, grumblers or croakers infest our camp or hang upon our rear. The stragglers have come in, the deserters returned. The bugle sounds the charge; the air is alive with music; all friendly hearts thrill with joy and the hostile quake with terror at that sublimest of sounds, the solemn tread of the armed millions; the welkin rings with the exultant cheers as we enter the fray assured of a glorious victory.

We are confident of success because enthusiasm quickens to toil, and intelligent work takes infinite pains to devise, plan and organize. The hopeful soul is fruitful in expedients, ready for all emergencies, with clear vision to see and skillful hand to execute, and patient endurance to complete every special detail of work. The true organizer of victory is confident of success because he knows he has taken the possible contingencies into account and has the strength and resources to meet and overcome them all. We are assured of success then, because we see evidences that the work needful for it will be done. Success follows thought and work. We see the toil and shout the triumph, California will repudiate her half-done, disgraceful work of last fall, and wheel into the foremost rank of the sons of light. Our erring sisters at the East will retrace their wandering steps, and following their chosen leader, the Great Captain of the age, we will once more grind to powder that incarnate fiend of despotism, American Democracy.

THE OVERLAND MONTHLY.—We have received the August number of this decidedly first-class magazine, and in it we find the following: "A Court Ball at the Palace of Mexico;" "Art Beginnings on the Pacific Coast, II;" "A Californian Abroad—A few Parisian Sights;" "A Day with the Cow Column;" "The Snow Plant;" "Scalping as a Fine Art;" "The Story of an Unfortunate City;" "In Blossom Time;" "Some Talk about Drunkenness;" "Chinese in California—Their Sign-Board Literature;" "To a Sea Bird;" "A Ride on the Texan Frontier;" "Meteorology from Tamalpais;" "In Nan-Kin;" "Farming Facts for California Immigrants;" "The Luck of a Roaring Camp;" "Current Literature." It is with pleasure we commend the "Overland" to the consideration of the reading public. The matter contained in it is of the highest order, and worthy of careful perusal.

GREELEY ON SEYMOUR.—Horace Greeley, after reciting one of Seymour's speeches discouraging the people of the North from assisting to crush the rebellion, and pouring foul words at the Administration and the Federal soldiers in the field, says:

Such was "the fire in the rear" which, though opened too late to avail Lee in Pennsylvania, served to stir up the great rebellion in this city, whereby so many houses were burned, negroes hunted through our streets like wolves, hanged and burned when caught, and the Colored Orphan Asylum pillaged and burned to the ground. It was a body of those rebel rioters, fresh from the sack of the Tribune office, which they fired and would have burned but for the prompt interpositon of the Police, that he addressed as "friends," and to desist from their work while he should send to Washington and get the draft (which was their pretext) postponed or averted. Not one indignant remonstrance, not one earnest threat, not one word evincing displeasure, did he address to the miscreants whose dens were then glutted with plunder as their hands were red with murder.

AN ape of Brick Pomroy's who publishes a paper in Sonoma county has the following elegant, gentlemanly, and courteous notice of the adjournment of Congress:

"That foul, black and damnable stain upon our country's history; that dirty, rotten, villainous crew of cut-throats, robbers, public plunderers, murderers, drunkards, liars, perjurers and destructionists, commonly called the Rump, has adjourned till the third Monday in September."

The Times says it seems that Wade Hampton on his way home from the New York Convention, made a speech to a Democratic meeting in Baltimore, in which he thanked the rebel soldiers from Maryland for having "swept across the line and stood shoulder to shoulder with South Carolina in the great struggle for liberty." He advised them to stand firm for Seymour and Blair. And there is no doubt that every man of them will.

UPWARDS of $20,000,000 are deposited in the ten savings socities of San Francisco, against $7,000,000 in January, 1866.

THE small pox continues its ravages in San Francisco.

MINERS' HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

THE property of this Association is located in San Francisco, on the Central Ocean Macadamized road, about a mile and a half from the now thickly settled portion of the city, and fronting on the New Park, of one thousand acres, recently located by the Board of Supervisors; Lake Honda, and the property of the Spring Valley Water Company adjoining on the east. The magnificent reservoir of the Water Company, now nearly completed, will always be an object of attraction to parties visiting San Francisco.

SCHOOL LOTS are reserved in adjoining blocks.

The principal object in organizing the above Association has been to get a desirable property to offer those persons in the interior who wish to purchase a Homestead in San Francisco, on Easy Terms, and also, in a locality where real estate is daily increasing in value, so that they may reasonably expect that the lots purchased will be marketable at a handsome advance on the purchase price before all the assessments have been paid in.

The lots are offered at $250 each, in payments extending through one year. First payment $40; balance in monthly installments of $20—without interest.

The lots average in size abont 25 by 120 feet.

None of the lots have less than 25 feet front—Corner lots 32½ feet front by 100 feet in depth.

Rooms No. 9, 10, 11, first floor, up stairs, entrance either Montgomery or Sacramen streets.

DR. PERRAULT'S studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the results of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruit tasted long after- ward; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptons: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Uretha on going to stool or making water, the Intellectual Faculties are Weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are clouded and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writign or the society of friends, etc, The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo and that Sight and Hearing are Weakened and sleep disturbed by dreams, melancholy, sighing, palpitations, faintings, coughs and slow fever; while some have external rheumatic pain, bness of the body. Some of the most common symptons are pimples in the face and aching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease, should apply immediately to Dr. PERRAULT, either in person or by letter as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six to eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal diseases in any stage Gonorrhea, Gleet, Strictures, Bubo Ulcers, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system.

DR. PERRAULT'S diplomas are in his office, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given if required.

Patients suffering under chronic diseases, can call and examine for themselves. We invite investigation; claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfil our promises. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor, and that advertised physician, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us.

Low charges and quick cures. Ladies suffering from any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor, with the assurance of relief.

Female Monthly Pills.

DR. PERRAULT is the only agent in California for DR. BIOT'S Female Monthly Pills. Persons at a distance can be cured at home, by addressing a letter to Dr. PERRAULT, corner of Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 973, P. O., San Francisco, stating the case as minutely as possible general habits of living, occupation, etc., etc.

THE
EAGLE PIANO-FORTE CO.

950 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

The above company is composed of a number of practical and experienced Piano-Forte builders, sustained by abundant Capital, and whose especial object is to manufacture Piano-Fortes embracing.

Every modern Improvement of

REAL MERIT.

While other manufacturers embody their own special improvements in their instruments, they are deterred from using, the perhaps equally valuable improvements of others in regard to other portions of the instrument, by the often exorbitant royalties or fees demanded by the Patentees for the privilege, so that although we have frequently announcements of Pianos embracing every modern improvement, there are really none at present that do so. It is the determination of the EAGLE PIANO-FORTE CO., to disregard all considerations of expense in procuring the rights to use any and every improvement which has met the approval, and may be recommended to them by the leading Pianists of the day, such as the Abbe Listz, Thalberg, Gottschalk and others.

This Company has boldly embarked with the above purpose, confident that the American people are prepared to approve, appreciate, and sustain their effort to produce,

The most complete and best Piano-

FORTE IN THE WORLD.

While the expense of manufacturing will necessarily be increase by the purchase of these rights and privileges, it will not be permitted to increase the retail price of any of their instruments. The same style and finish of instruments will be sold as cheaply as those of any other good manufacturer.

The Company being new is disposed to expend its exertions more for establishing its reputation and the reputation of its work than for present profits, confident that this course will be more profitabld in the end.

Every department of the manufacturing being under the hands of a practical workman, who is at the same time a member of the Company and interrested in its success and reputation, insures an exactness with regard to the character of the work that cannot otherwise be obtained.

The best recommendation for these Pianos lies in the fact that they are rapidly finding their way into the parlors of all the leading professional and amateur Pianists of the day in preference to all others.

Confident that their instruments will be their own best recommendation, the Eagle Piano-Forte Co., are anxious to effect the early introduction of one or more of their Pianos into every community, and to this end they offer

Extraordinary inducements to

MUSIC TEACHERS AND OTHERS

Who may be able to aid them in their effort.

School Committees and others desiring instruments for Public Institutions will be offered special inducements.

Ladies and others having charge of Charitable Fairs, Festivals, &c., will be offered special inducements together with suggestions by which the proceeds of their benevolent offorts may be greatly increased: all such are especially invited to correspond with us.

Every instrument manufactured by the Eagle Piano-Forte Co., is made out of the very best and most suitable material selected from all parts of the world, most thoroughly seasoned and prepared, and warranted, in every respect for five years, as to material and workmanship, and to stand in any climate.

Orders promptly and carefully filled from the large assortment always on hand.

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

PREACHING at the Union Church to-morrow morning at the usual hours.

THERE will be preaching in the M. E. Church on Sunday at the usual hours, morning and evening.

HURRAH FOR MACON!—The Times hopes that Grant's reception at the village of Macon somewhere in Missouri, will satisfy the Democrats. We congratulate our neighbor on the tremendous outpouring of the people of that village to welcome its candidate. We are disposed to be generous and credit him with the whole of the immense affair, though the telegraph foolishly stated that the demonstration was in honor of Sherman, Grant and Sheridan. There can no longer be a doubt of Grant's election. Macon has spoken. We expect to hear that Red Dog, Shirt Tail Bend, Jack Ass Gulch, and Indian Springs, in this State, have caught the infection and boiled over for Grant.—S. F. Dispatch.

Just leave out Red Dog and Indian Springs if you please. Both of these flourishing places are in the county of Nevada, and have been heard from. They are boiling over for Seymour and Blair. Apologise Mr. Dispatch.—Grass Valley Union.

In boiling the scum generally comes to the top, and boils over, especially if there happens to be a greater quantity of pure material of another element underneath. The Dispatch probably made a mistake throughout. Seymour is the man that the different places throughout the country are boiling over for, and in a short time we shall see, the dross of Democracy skimmed from the surface of this boiling matter, and thrown to the earth, and Union element will predominate in all its purity.

'Tis strange what a mingling of matter we find in this world. The sublime and the ridiculous, the sweet and the bitter, the Godly and the vile, are all thrown together in an almost inextricable mass. Extract of logwood is offered for wine, and boiled sugar for honey. The basest are often dressed in robes of royal purple, and the purest frequently in the rags of a beggar. Before now we have seen little children visiting the lowest haunts of men; the picture of our Saviour decorating the bar of a gambling hell; or sweet hymns and songs corrupted by the mingling of idle and vulgar words. While we laugh and talk jocosely about the things of life, and gaze complacently upon this strange intermingling, we cannot help recalling that trite old saying that "things of earth can never be perfect." We were forcibly reminded of these things the other day by seeing a beautiful picture of rosebuds and geranium leaves, with a potato back-ground. Rather a strange admixture we think, and one that we must confess our inability to decipher the sentiment of.

THE "heated term" which prevailed for some weeks on the Eastern coast, and of which we have been hearing, says the Times, was most terible. The papers published day after day long lists of deaths and injuries from sunstroke, and the rate of mortality from other diseases, especially among children rapidly increased. The highest range of the thermometer in New York up to July 17th, was ninety-fix, a degree which is frequently exceeded in the interior of this State. But then, there was little relief at night from the heat of the day. In the Central Park, at midnight, for some time, the thermometer ranged from seventy-five to eighty-one. In the West the heat was much greater, the thermometer in many places rising above one hundred. Numbers of horses were killed and business to a great degree was suspended.

HERE'S A CHANCE FOR YOU.—A matrimonial brokerage establishment has been started in San Francisco, which proposes to find partners for all. Those who are timid, advanced in life, or those who are constantly being jilted, might do well to give the institution a trial, but as a rule we don't think it will work well. The following is a portion of the advertisement:

The entire management and control of this office is in charge of the Corresponding Secretary, a lady of discretion, mature years, and conscientious Christian principles, united with large experience and close observation of society, and of character in general. To avoid "publicity" no two persons will be admitted at the same time until after satisfactory evidence is given that Marriage is intended.

HORATIO SEYMOUR, in 1861, said to Judge Charles H. Ruggles that the Confederate Constitution was "better" than our glorious old Federal Constitution, and suggested that it would be well to obviate further "unpleasantness" by "simply adopting" the Constitution framed at Montgomery as the Constitution of the whole country. That Constitution prohibited all foreigners from becoming citizens until they had resided twenty-one years within the Confederate domain.

NAPA VALLEY RAILROAD.—The Bulletin says the ties for a short piece of road, 4½ miles, from Suscol to Napa Junction, on the California Pacific road, are all engaged and most of them on the ground. The iron has been shipped. We understand that is the intention of the Company to force on the work, and have connection made by September 10th.

FEROCIOUS.—The Examiner is upon the war-path. It says: "We tell the Mongrel screamers that we are bound to have revolution. The people of the North are on the war-path and intend to hurl from office the guilty betrayers of their confidence."

THANKS.—We return thanks to our old friend Burr Glasscock, for a splendid, large trout, from Lake Tahoe.

WE acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the "Mineral Resources," (Ross Browne's Report) from the Hon. Wm. Higby.

WHITE SWELLINGS.

These generally considered to be indications of a scrofulous tendency in the system, and the first thing to be done for their removal is to purify the blood and humors. Bristol's Sarsaparilla and Pills, used conjointly, are possessed of the very properties required; they cleanse, purify, neutralize, and purge out the system, the bad humors which are the sole cause of the trouble. 573

ASIATIC CHOLERA.

The strongest proof of intrinsic MERIT.

DEAR SIRS:—I ought to have acknowledged long ago the box of Pain Killer you had the goodness to send me last year. Its coming was most providential. I believe hundreds of lives were saved, under God, by it. The cholera appeared here soon after we received it. We resorted at once to the Pain Killer, using as directed for cholera. A list was kept of all to whom the Pain Killer was given, and our native attendents assured us that eight out of every ten to whom it was prescribed, recovered. It has, too, been very useful in various other diseases. It has proved an incalculable blessing to multitudes of poor people throughout all this region. Our native preachers are never willing to go out on their excursions without a supply of Pain Killer. It gives them favor in the eyes of the people, and access to families and localities by whom otherwise they would be very indifferently received.

Believe me, dear sirs, gratefully and faithfully yours.

HOPE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. YOUNG, in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure. Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sickand troubled can divest themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisement and follow the advice. Do not forget the number or the manner of directing your letters. Consultation Office, 540, Washington street, San Francisco.

MEDICAL ADVICE.—DR. WM. K. DOHERTY'S Medical and Surgical Institute is becoming a sine qua non to the welfare of our State and health of our citizens; and his rapidly spreading reputation, although it may excite surprise, is but the signal of skill, and follows as the natural result of such a cause. We are personally acquainted with gentlemen who had suffered for years under chronic disease, and who had taken advantage of every available means that promised relief, but without success, until they called upon Dr. Doherty, who, in an incredibly short space of time, has given them entire relief. It is gratifying to announce this fact, because the Dr. is a gentleman who seeks, not by defamation of others to establish his reputation or ruin of another's fame. The Doctor conducts his own Institute in such a manner must be gratifying to all his patients. He examines, advises, and recommends without charge; and the patient, after hearing his terms for treatment, can accept or reject at pleasure. In no case does the Doctor make a charge unless he effects a cure. This he is able to do, because he feels the confidence which long experience has given, and no doubt consolation which appertain to that confidence. Persons afflicted with either acute or chronic disease, would do well to consult the Doctor; at all events, it can do no harm, as for consultation he asks no fee; nor does he insist on obedience to his advice unless the patient places himself under his care. His offices are on Sacramento street, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship office.—News

OF DEATHS, that annually occur, are caused by Preventable Diseases, and the greater portion of those complaints would, if Radway's Ready Relief or Pills, (as the case may require,) were administered when pain or uneasiness or when pain or uneasiness or slight sickness is experienced, be exterminated from the system in a few hours. PAIN, no matter from what cause, is almost instantly cured by the Ready Relief. In cases of Cholera, Diarrhœa, Cramps, Spasms, Bilious Cholic, in fact all Pains, Aches and Infirmities either in the Stomach, Bowels, Bladder, Kidneys, or the Joints, Muscles, Arms, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Headache, Toothache, &c., will in a FEW MINUTES yield to the soothing influence of the Ready Relief.

Sudden Colds, Coughs, Influenza, Diptheria, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Chills, Fever and Ague, Mercurial Pains, Scarlet Fever, &c., &c., take from four to six of Radway's Pills, and also a teaspoonful of the Ready Relief in a glass of warm water, sweetened with sugar or honey; bathe the throat, head and chest with Ready Relief, (if Ague or Intermittent Fever, bathe the spine also,) in the morning you will be cured.

How the Ready Relief Acts.

In a few minutes the patient will feel a slight tingling irritation, and the skin becomes reddened; if there is much distress in the stomach, the Relief will assist Nature in removing the offending cause,—a general warmth is felt throughout the entire body, and its diffusive stimulative properties rapidly courses through every vein and tissue of the system, arousing the slothful and partially paralyzed glands and organs to renewed and healthy action, perspiration follows, and the surface of the body feels increased heat. The sickness at stomach, colds, chills, headache, oppressed breathing, the soreness of the throat, and all pains, either internally or externally, rapidly subside, and the patient falls into a tranquil sleep, awakes refreshed, invigorated, cured.

It will be found that in using the Relief externally, either on the spine or across the kidneys, or over the stomach and bowels, that for several days a pleasing warmth will be felt, showing the length of time it continues its influence over the diseased parts.

☞Price of R. R. R. 50 cents per bottle. Sold by Druggists and Country Merchants, Grocers, &c.

RADWAY & CO.,

TYPHOID FEVER.

This disease is not only cured by Dr. Radway's Relief and Pills, but prevented. If exposed to it, put one teaspoonful of Relief in a tumbler of water. Drink this before going out in the morning, and several times through the day. Take one of Radway's Pills one hour before dinner, and one on going to bed.

If seized with fever, take 4 to 6 of the Pills every six hours, until copious discharges from the bowels take place; also drink the Relief diluted with water, and bathe the entire surface of the body with Relief. Soon a powerful perspiration will take place, and you will feel a pleasant heat throughout the system. Keep on taking the Relief repeatedly, every four hours, also the Pills. A cure will be sure to follow. The Relief is strengthening, stimulating, soothing, and quieting; it is sure to break up the Fever and to neutralize the poison,

Let this treatement be followed and thousands will be saved. The same treatment will be followed in Fever and Ague, Yellow Fever, Ship Fever, Billious Fever, will effect a cure in 24 hours. When the patient feils the Relief irritating or heating the skin, a cure is positive. In all cases where pain is felt, the Relief should be used.

ALL OVER THE WORLD

People of sense and udgment have learned to use

PLANTATION BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, with its symptoms, Headache, Heartburn, Feverish Lips, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., can be cured by using PLANTATION BITTERS.

This is the most successful tonic of the age. Young, middle-aged and old are delighted with its effects.

The first trial always has a marked effect.

No change in diet is necessary. Eat all you wish, of the best and most nutritious food.

It is the greatest cure ever known for an overloaded and distressed stomach, which it relieves in a few moments.

We know that we have the best and most popular medicine in the world. We are not afraid to show what it is composed of.

PHYSICIANS ARE COMPELLED TO RECOMMEND IT

CALISAYA BARK has been celebrated for over two hundred years, and was sold during the reign of Louis XVI, King of France for the enormous price of its weight in silver. It is remarkable for Dyspepsia, Fevers, Weakness, Constipation, etc.

CASCARILLA BARK.—For Diarrhœa, Colic and diseases of the stomach and bowels.

DANDELION.—For Inflammation of the Loins, and Dropsical Affections.

CAMOMILE FLOWERS.—For enfeebled digestion.

LAVENDER FLOWERS.—Aromatic, stimulant and tonic—highly invigorating in nervous debility.

WINTERGREEN.—For Scrofula, Rheumatism etc.

ANISE.—An aromatic carminative; creating flesh, muscle and milk; much used by mothers nursing.

Also clove-budge, orange, charaway, coriander, snake-root, etc.

S.T-1860-X.

Another wonderful ingredient, of Spanish origin imparting beauty to the complexion and brilliancy to the mind, is yet unknown too the commerce of the world, and we with hold its name for the present.

With this recipe before the community, and evidence of effects meeting them on all sides, the success of DR. DRAKE stands founded upon the rock of truth. Almost every family has some cases of suffering which the PLANTATION BITTERS will alleviate and cure.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our United States stamp over the cork unmutilated, and our signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

THE SNOW-PLANT.

When winter early shifts her snow,
And skilling brooks no longer flow
Under an icy disk;
As in the sun the pale buds blow,
Though winds are keen and brisk;

Within the forest solitudes,
Where no unguarded foot intrudes,
The snow-plant dwells secure;
Its modesty all gaze eludes,
Its life is chaste and pure.

How perfect has thy stature grown
Thou waxen, rosy-tinted cone!
A flame incarnate, thou!
All fruits are compassed in thy zone;
All blossoms thee endow!

Uncloaked thy form, though not in shame;
Behold thy roots; thy members claim
No verdure but the air.
The winds are jealous of thy frame,
And visit thee with care.

How passionless sedate, serene
The solemn beauty of thy mien,
When early shoots adorn
The fading drifts. Lo! thou between
Art the young spring's first-borne.

Thy first seclusion stays the rush
Of elements. O, fitting hush!
And shadows that caress.
Shall mask the beauty of thy blush,
And veil thy nakedness.

THE MELANCHOLY HISTORY OF COCK ROBIN PENDELTON.

Who killed George Pendleton?
"It was I," says Belmon,
"For mine vive twent bondt,
I killed Shorge Bendleton."

Who saw him die?
"I," said Frank Blair,
"And I'll swear it was fair,
I saw him die."

Who'll dig his grave?
"I," little Macky said,
"I with my spade,
I'll dig his grave."

Who'll make his shroud?
"I," said Susan Anthony,
"If he should want any,
I'll make his shroud."

Who'll toll the bell?
"I," said Vallandigham,
"Though I don't care a d—n,
I'll toll the bell,"

Who'll be the parson?
"I," said old Storey,
"My locks they are hoary,
And I'll be the parson."
Who'll be chief mourner?
"I," said G. M. D. Bloss,
"My book's a total loss,
And I'll be chief mourner."

Who takes the spoils?
"I," said Horatio,
"If you will say so,
I—I'll—take—the—spoils."

Then all the greenbackers
Fell to sighing and sobbing
At the loss of their chances
For plund'ring and robbing.

MEDICAL.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH!

Every Man His Own Physician.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS,

AND

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT!

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The Stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system. Abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, &c. The Bowels sympathize by Costiveness, Diarrhœa and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum,

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent, to these the Ointment is especially antagonistic, its "modus operandi" is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years' standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions on the Skin.

Arising from a bad state of the blood of chronic diseases, are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints.

Whether in the young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation, they are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Piles,	Sore Legs,
Burns,	Rheumatism,	Sore Breasts,
Chilblains,	Ringworm,	Sore Heads,
Fistula,	Salt Rheum,	Sore Throats,
Gout,	Scalds,	Sprains,
Stiff Joints,	Tetter,	Ulcers.
Lumbago,	Skin Diseases	Venereal Sores,
Sores of all kinds,	Mercurial Eruptions,
Swelled Glands,	Wounds of all kinds.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water Mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box. The same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot and box.

For these diseases, it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Buchu will relieve you.

PHYSICIANS AND OTHERS

PLEASE NOTICE.

I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract of Buchu, is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, prepared in vacuo and according to rules of Pharmacy and Chemistry.

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded.

A DIURETIC

is that which acts upon the kidneys.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

ACTS GENTLY,

Is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

FOR THE SATISFACTION OF ALL

See Medical Properties contained in the Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:

"BUCHU. Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, Chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, morbid irritation of the Bladder and Urethr, diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or the Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. [DR. KEYSER is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia.]

MR. H. T. HELMBOLD:

DEAR SIR:—In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about BUCHU, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used or known to be used, in the various diseases where such inedicate agent would be indicated.

You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgement, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as stated before, every form of BUCHU—the powdered leaves the simple decoction, tincture, fluid extracts; and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Eighteen years experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits, and with ut prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effects on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other proprietary compound of whatever name, or any other Buchu.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D.,

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE

has enjoyed on this coast an uninterrupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord is to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific coast. The thousands annually received and cured place it in point of number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment ranks it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALES and IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health. They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the bloom from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength from the frame; they give to the world puny and diseased offspring, and poison, through successive generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiotic, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arising from the contamination of Venerial Poisen. The mildest forms, by retreating to the blood, hold over the afflicted one, the destruction that is liable at any moment to fall and blight—to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, combining with the Venereal, doubles iis dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured; the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be satisfied with partial cures that leave the poison to crawl through the system, eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface, to burst out in the future with a virulence that will baffle the effects of medicine, WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician whom long practice and thorough investigation into the causes of DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all cases entrusted to the Doctor's care, PERFECT, SPEEDY and PERMANENT Cures are Always Guaranteed.

In syphilis and its adjuncts; Gonnorrhœa and its accompanying diseases; and all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, and prostate; Seminal Weakness; Diseases of the Heart and Lungs; Dyspepsia; Indigestion, Impotency; Incipient consumption, and all diseases of the urinary organs, in either sex, cure always warranted, or NO PAY REQUIRED, at the Seminal Weakness or Spermatorrhœa.

The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and mental organization, should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion unaccountable failing of the powers of the mind, distaste for society, dread of impending trouble, forebodings of evil, sleeplessness, troubled and lascivious dreams, accompanied by growing deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptons of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his hope of life and manhood, and dragging him along the broken path of his existence towards a premature and loathsome grave. To him who finds his life dribbling out in the discharge of the vital principle of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions, the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Marriage, that holy office, the safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such an one no hope of cure, but adds to his misery in the knowledge that the one who looks to him for so much of her happiness, is a victim to this evil, and an innocent companion of his punishment. He adds to his misery and disorder until hope leaves him. There is no rescue except in proper and skillful treatment. Consult then, at once, a physician whom long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. Those who have become the victims of solitary vices, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which fills thousands of sick-rooms with paralytics and consumptives, and hundreds of untimely graves with its misguided victims, should consult, without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and all assurance of a PERFECT and PERMANENT CURE, without hindrance to business, change of diet, or fear of exposure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

Important to Females.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease and requires medical or surgical assistance, the enquiry should be, Where is there a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and beg the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous and designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who will feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE. See address below.

THE CELEBRATED FEMALE REMEDIES, compounded from the private prescription of Dr. Young, have now obtained a most extended popularity, and are correctly viewed to be the safest and surest remedies for the complaints for which they are applied. The constantly accruing testimonials of their efficacy declare them to be pre-eminently superior in their action. No lady should be without these Renovating Agents. None genuine unless procured at this office.
